

This petition challenges Indiana's telephone privacy statute and seeks to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers.

I do not support this weakening of the Indiana statute and urge you to deny this petition.